

"Soul Saving" Draws Jail Term

Emma Barcelli

The Rev. Finis Jennings Dake

Convicted of violating the Mann act, the Rev. Finis Jennings Dake, Zion, Ill., pastor, drew a six-month jail sentence when tried in Milwaukee. The Rev. Dake, "exonerated" by his wife and flock, was charged, and admitted, transporting a 16-year-old girl, Emma Barcelli, shown above with Dake, from her home in Kenosha, Wis., to East St. Louis, Ill., during a "soul saving" expedition. The preacher says he just wanted to "pray" with Miss Barcelli.
